

FACULTY PROFILE

Name

Patrick James B. Serra

Rank

Instructor 4

Educational Background (Degree, Institution)

BA History (cognate in Political Science)
University of the Philippines Diliman
2018
Magna cum laude

MA History (cognate in International Studies)
University of the Philippines Diliman
ongoing

Fields of Interest

Diplomatic History of the Philippines, Heritage and Urban Planning Studies, Asian History, and Contemporary Issues

Awards and Honors

Best Paper “Sun Yat-sen, Pan-Asianism and the Early Relations of the First Philippine Republic, 1899-1902”, 4th SEASIA Biennial Conference (organized by the National Research and Innovation Agency, Indonesia) 2022.

Honorable Mention, Borneo MUN, Malaysia (October, 2016)

Honorable Mention and Best in Position Paper, Southern Luzon MUN, Philippines (March, 2017)

A student leadership award given by the Office of Student Affairs of the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy for his service as history department representative

Selected Publications

“An Institutional History of Nayong Pilipino Foundation, 1970-2015” to the Inaugural Issue of Nayon: Journal of Natural and Cultural Heritage . 2023

Identity and Independence: Filipino in Times of War and Peace (Contributor) published by Philippine Veteran’s Affairs Office and UP Department of History. 2022.

"Lost in Translation: A Case Study on the Role of LGUs in the Preservation of Historic Centers in Malolos, Manila and Las Pinas" (abstract) to the July 2019 Issue (Volume 4, Issue 2) of Regional Journal of Southeast Asia Studies “Making Sense of Duterte and EU: An Actor-Structure Approach of Duterte’s Rejection of the EU’s Foreign Aids (abstract) to the July 2018 Issue (Volume 3, Issue 2).

(December, 2019)

4th Philippine Studies Conference in Japan, Hiroshima University, Japan
(November, 2018)